

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my interest in working for xxx, as I believe that I have the requisite skills and experience to significantly contribute to the role of Software Developer. I attach a copy of my CV for your perusal.

I am a motivated and driven individual, currently studying towards an MSc in Advanced Computer Science, supporting a passion for technology which has allowed me to gain experience in designing and building fully functional websites. Organised, thorough and dedicated to my work, I have gained vast understanding of various programming languages during my academic studies. I am eager to apply my technical skills and passion for technology to make a meaningful impact. Your emphasis on on-the-job training in all areas listed aligns perfectly with my appetite for continuous learning and growth.

In addition, I pride myself on being a proactive and committed team member with the persistence and drive to achieve shared goals. Equally, I am someone who works well on their own initiative, with the ability to work to a high standard within agreed timeframes.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to join your technical team and contribute to your mission of delivering critical services to the healthcare sector. I believe my technical skills, passion for technology, and ability to excel in a fast-paced environment align well with the requirements of this role.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences can contribute to your organization's success. I have attached my resume for your review, and I look forward to the possibility of an interview to further discuss my qualifications.

Please do not hesitate to call me on 07833826619. I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours faithfully
