Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in working for xxx, as I believe that I have the requisite skills and experience to significantly contribute to the role of Software Developer. I am a self-motivated software developer with a strong passion for technology. I am confident that my skills and experience make me an ideal candidate for this role. I have a strong foundation in the core principles of computer science, including programming languages, software development methodologies, and data structures and algorithms.

As a recent Graduate Software Engineer, I acquired extensive experience in designing and building fully functional websites during my MSc in Advanced Computer Science. In my final year project, I was solely responsible for conducting software analysis, researching, designing to coding, testing, and debugging the Smart Career Path Recommendation system and Web Application. I have a strong understanding of Java 8 +, JavaScript, React JS, HTML5, CSS, Spring Boot, RESTful APIs, MySQL and unit testing. I am also familiar with cloud computing (AWS), agile development and version control systems.

During my academic journey, I consistently demonstrated an ability to prioritize tasks, provide accurate time estimations, and deliver projects on schedule. I am confident that my dedication to detail, excellent time management, and strong communication skills will be valuable contributions to the company's development endeavours

During my master's program, I worked on team projects. This taught me that it is important to have good relationships with my teammates so that we can work together smoothly and solve problems effectively.

I am confident that I have the skills and experience necessary to be successful in software developer roles. I am eager to learn more about the position and your company. I am available for an interview at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Niranjana Devi Arumugasamy
