Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you to express my interest in working for XXX as I believe that I have the requisite skills and experience to make a significant contribution to the role of Graduate Software Engineer. I attach a copy of my CV for your perusal.

I am a motivated and driven individual, currently studying towards an MSc in Advanced Computer Science, supporting a passion for technology which has allowed me to gain experience in designing and building fully functional websites. Organised, thorough and dedicated to my work, I have gained vast understanding of various programming languages during my academic studies.

I have strong communication skills and the ability to build and maintain excellent working relationships.

In addition, I pride myself on being a proactive and committed team member with the persistence and drive to achieve shared goals. Equally, I am someone who works well on their own initiative, with the ability to work to a high standard within agreed timeframes.

I am looking to join XXX, because you are able to offer candidates a range of superb career opportunities and an immediately challenging. I am keen to pursue a career that enables me to apply my experience, as well as my passion for Software Development Projects.

As a focused individual who always strives for excellence, enjoys a challenging, hands-on role and is always willing to take on new responsibilities and learn new skills whenever the opportunity arises, I believe I am a strong candidate for the position and I am fully available at your convenience to discuss the added value that I can bring.

Please do not hesitate to call me on 07833826619. I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours faithfully
